Dear Diary,
In spite of English themes, Chemistry experiments and research papers, I'll always have a deep gratitude for the teachers' diligent work. I'll also appreciate the work of our student leaders in promoting our student activities.

FACULTY, ADMINISTRATION AND STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

HAROLD PHILLIPS
Principal

Education has become the major industry of twentieth century America. It is the biggest and most hopeful of the nation's enterprises. Long ago our people recognized that education for all is not only democracy's obligation, but its necessity. Education is the foundation of democratic liberties, the key to world order. We are living in a decisive moment of human history, the complexity of which is baffling to all of us. We are faced with a changing, groping, unstable world caused by an explosion of knowledge, an almost unbelievable breakthrough of science and technology, and a fierce contest between democracy and communism.

We have a big job in education if mankind is to survive and move on to higher levels of thought and action. It is this task that challenges our educators to lead the way toward a new way of thinking. We must plan, with intelligence, imagination, courage, and wisdom, the course we are to take toward the kind of tomorrow we want.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Left to right: Glen Ward, Cyril Budge, Dr. James W. Owsley, David Jensen, R. K. Barcus, Superintendent Willis Nelson, A. J. Powell.

WILLIS G. NELSON
Superintendent of Schools

Education — Knowledge — Intelligence — Wisdom — All have connotations of the learning process but one stands out as the key to sagacious use of the acquired skills and facts. That is wisdom. The world of today has enough accumulated "know how" to make a heaven or hell for all of us. The presence or absence of wisdom in all decisions will determine the course we take. Knowledge without wise application can be dangerous or destructive; knowledge with wisdom applied can result only in good.

May the class of '63 wield a mighty influence for wisdom in community and world leadership.

MR. POWELL
Adviser

Shown here is a typical Wednesday morning meeting of the Student Council.

For the first time in MHS, the student council added homeroom representatives from each homeroom in addition to the regular members — class presidents, student body officers, and class-representatives. As a new feature to the school agenda, the student council planned the Idaho Centennial Day. We congratulate and commend the efforts put forth by this group of well-qualified leaders.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

As student body leaders, Guy, Stephen, and Janet created a greater interest in student government through the handling of disciplinary problems, finances, and the planning of all student activities.

Commencing the year, Guy introduced the attractive post cards picturing the high school which were received enthusiastically. A neglected event of the past, homecoming was given prominence with the addition of a parade and a general up-grading of other activities. During the second semester, home room representatives were added to the student council hoping to keep the students better informed.

The student body officers have demonstrated an unusual concern for the betterment of MHS.

JANET LARSEN
Secretary

June Bunderson, registrar, issues admit slips to Renee Kunz, Terry Bateman, Diane P. Bateman, and Stephanie Wright.

Bringing up the rear of the Homecoming Parade, the faculty float, (Mr. Skinner's truck), decked out in festive-colored crepe paper, carried the faculty who displayed hilarious disguises.

The faculty enjoys an evening of cook-'em-up featuring Chef Wilde and Coach Pitchford at the Bird Farm.

JUNE BUNDERSON
Registrar

The efforts of Mrs. Jacobson, Mrs. Goebel, Mrs. Williamson, and Mrs. Wilcox, who undertook the job of satisfying the students' ravenous appetites for only 25 cents a meal, are greatly appreciated.

MR. EARL MILLER
Janitor

These student janitors who succeeded Earl Miller in the second semester accomplished the huge tasks of keeping the high school and gym tip-top shape. STUDENT JANITORS: John Powell, Charles Cob, Warren Sleight, Paul Wiggington, Wayne Law.

Dear Diary,
I had the class presidents autograph my book since they worked so hard for class unity.

SENIORS

CLASS OFFICERS

The graduation cap features the class officers of '63. Julie Martineau, President, led the class, with the assistance of Diane P. Bateman, Student Council Representative; Pete Guyon, Secretary; Gordon Bradley, and Reola Phelps Co-Committemen. Winding up four most successful years, the seniors have displayed leadership, scholarship, and initiative. These qualities were evident with the success of the '62 Junior Prom which showed a profit, the first in many years. The class boasts two students with a 4.0 average and one of the first Merit finalists since 1959.

CLASS OFFICERS

Pictured inside the traditional class ring are the officers: Kristin Munk, Secretary; Keith Teuscher, President; Janis Alleman, Student Council Representative; Kerry Haddock and Roger Rigby, Assembly Committeemen. New ideas were initiated, with much success: "Slave Day," "Snack Shack," and the Junior Prom, highlighting the presentation of the class rings. The Juniors are indebted to these people for helping make the year a memorable one.

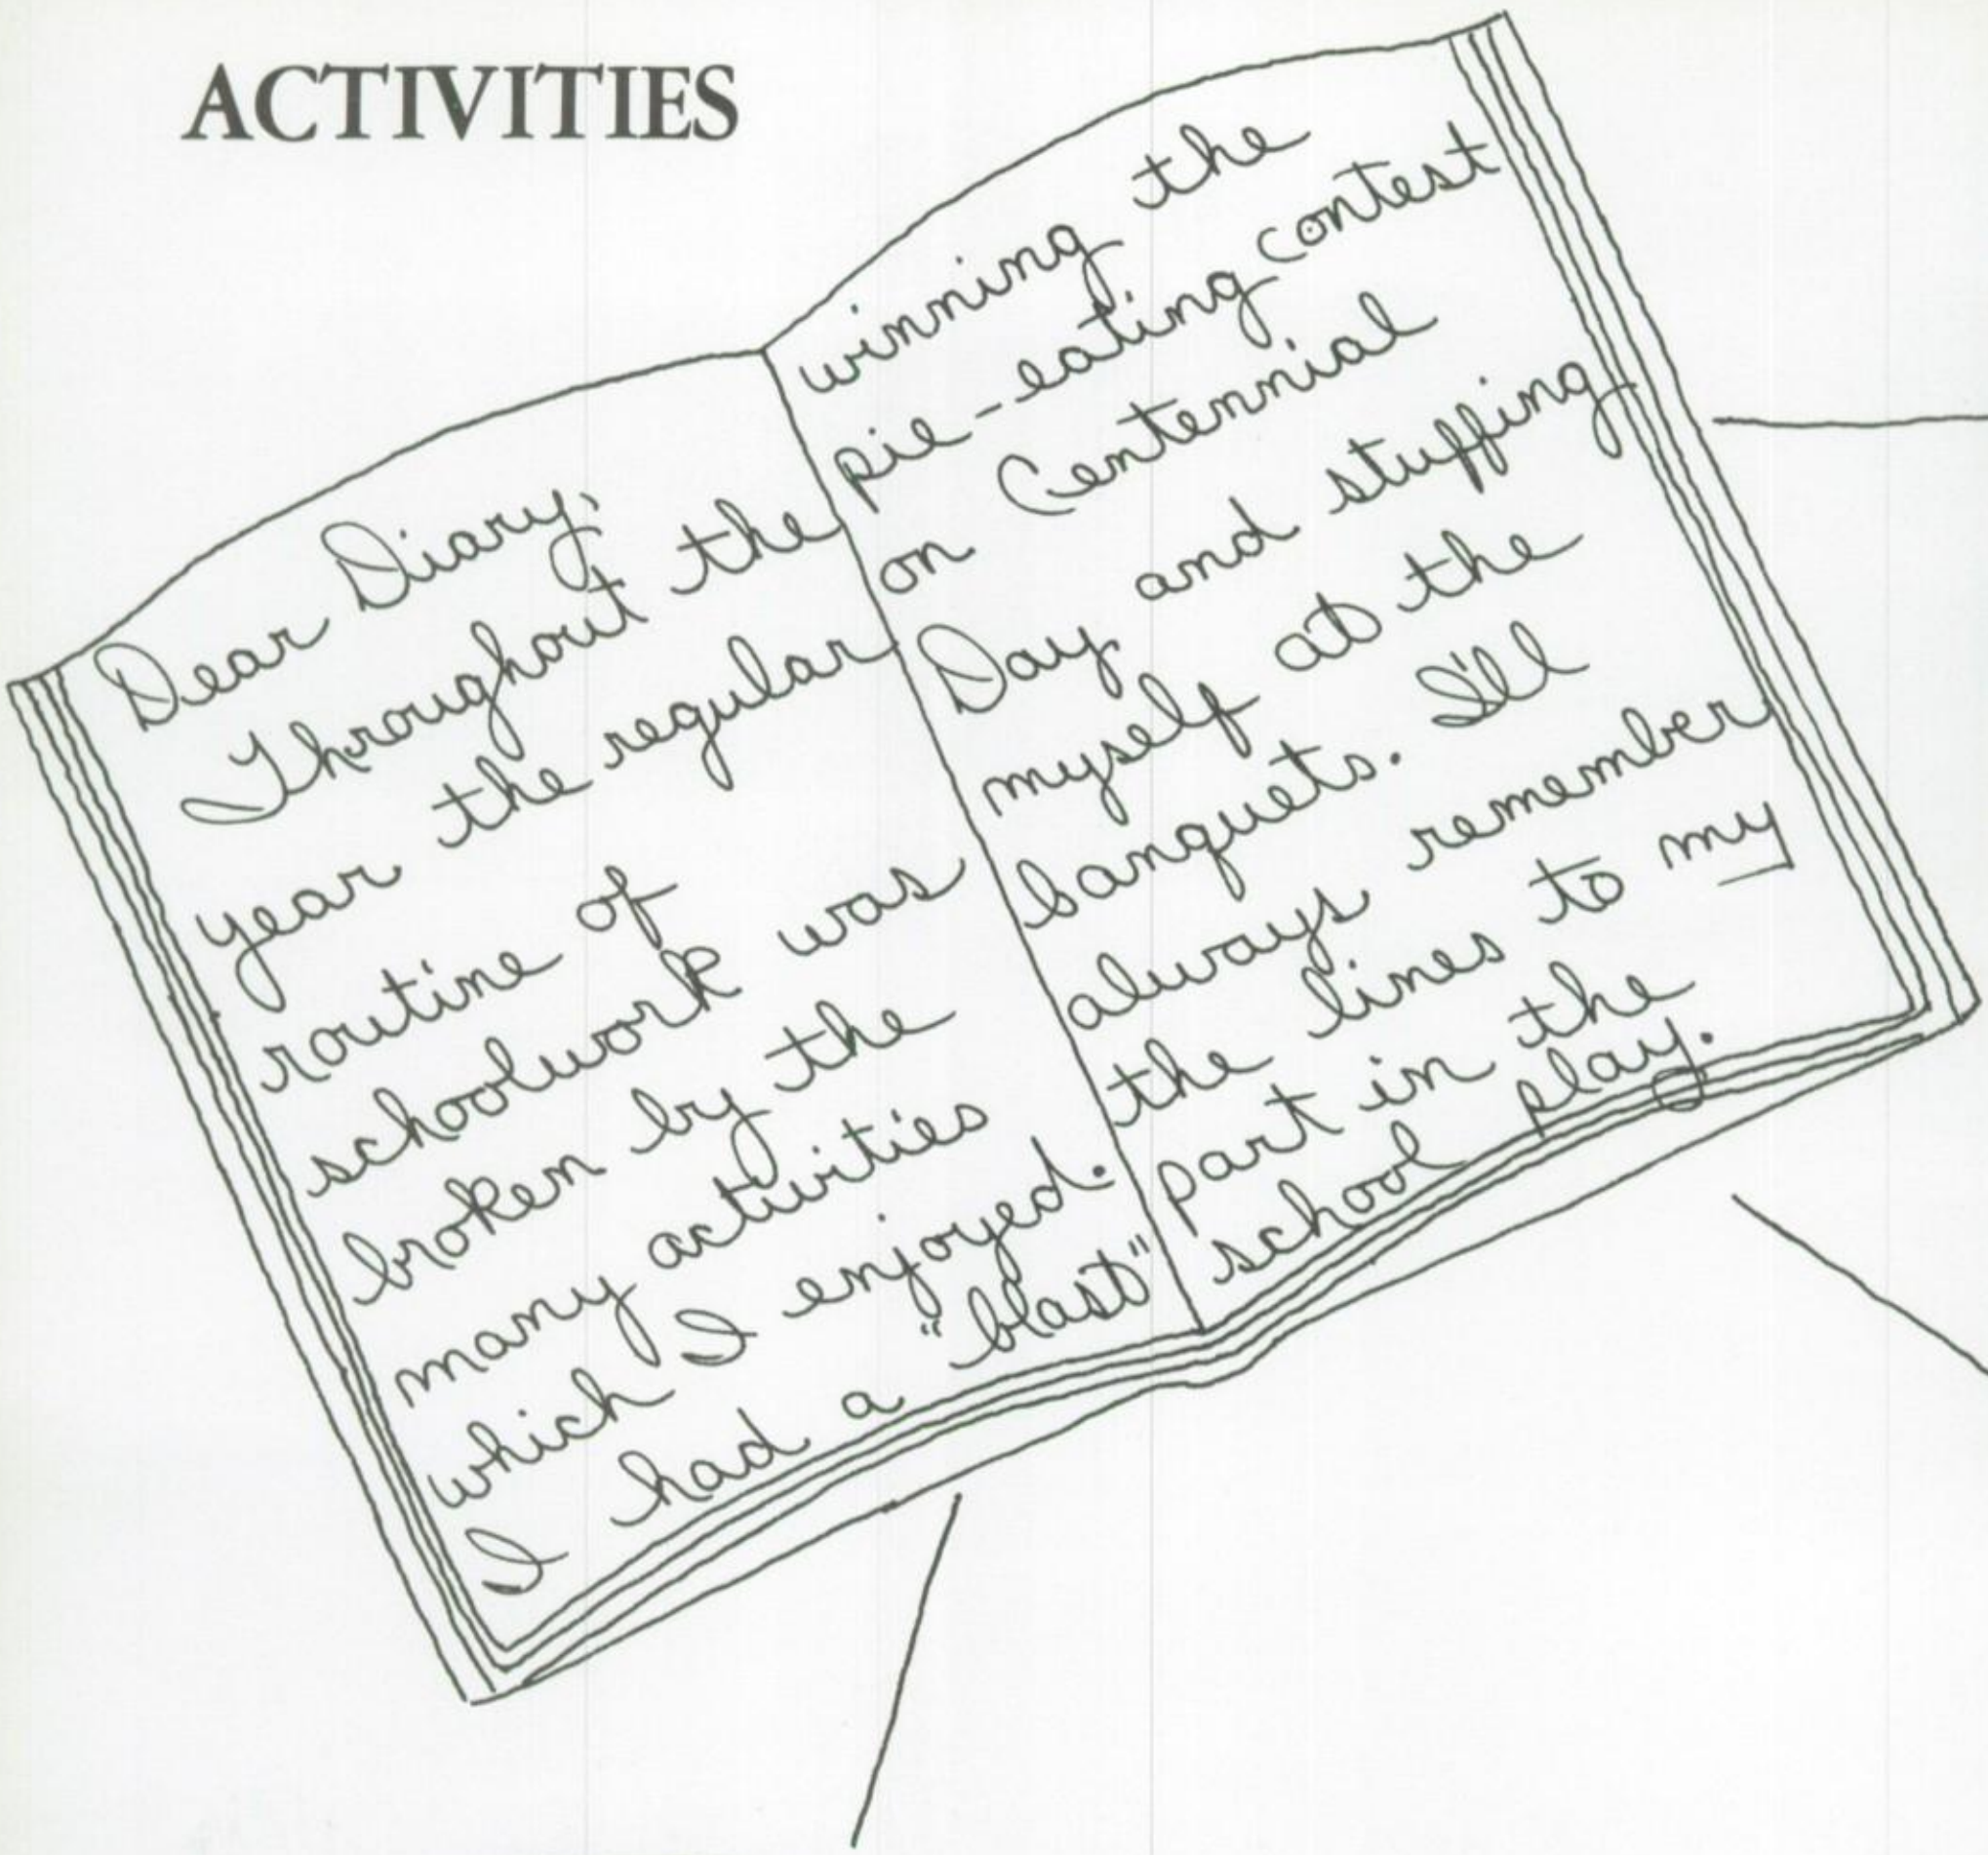
ACTIVITIES



Dear Diary;
Throughout the year the regular routine of schoolwork was broken by the many activities which I enjoyed. I had a "blast" winning the pie-eating contest on Centennial Day and stuffing myself at the banquets. I'll always remember the lines to my part in the school play.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

RENEE KUNZ
Queen

After being nominated by the members of the football team, the Student Body voted on the Homecoming royalty. Renee Kunz was chosen Queen with Odetta Jones and Ann Baker as her attendants. They were crowned at the Homecoming assembly and presented to the public on the Lettermen's Club float during the Homecoming Parade. They were again presented at the half time of the game and at the dance.

The junior float, prize winner, pictures the Marsh Valley grave yard with Russell Peterson as the mourning Marsh Valley coach after a violent defeat by Pelier.

A large skunk dominating a football field characterized the theme, "Skunk 'Um Pelier" for the sophomore entry in the Homecoming Parade.

The senior float, done in colors of silver and blue, was adorned with a tub containing Loy Smith and multi-colored balloons. The theme was "Pelier's Bubbling Over With Victory."

The Homecoming Royalty rode the Lettermen's float which was a beautiful blend of rainbow colors.

MIKE WALLING

JUNIOR PROM

JANET BARTSCHI
Princess

Coach Johnson, adviser, issues class rings, the highlight of this year's Junior Prom, to the Prince and Princess, who were chosen by members of the Junior class.

Activities of the Pep Club Formal caught the girls doing the latest dance crazes, the stomp and the twist. The theme, Camelot, was portrayed with a castle and a multi-colored ceiling. The Essex, a high school orchestra from Preston, furnished the music.

Deep Purple, theme of the Lettermen's Ball, was carried out with the decorations in purple and white.

IDAMONT DANCE

"Most Original", Terry Lynn Arnell, makes her exit from the "privy" to find "Lil' Abner", Steven Tippetts, and "Daisy Mae", Bonnie Olsen, who were chosen by five alumni at the annual "Sadie Hawkins Dance."

HONOR SOCIETY DANCE

John Matthews runs to get a partner at the Honor Society's "Ugly Man" matinee dance. Peter Guyon reigned over this dance as MHS Ugly Man '63. Students entered into Twisting and Stomping contests.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

The newest rage in folk singers, the senior "monotones", Max Hemmert, Roger Hayes, and Wade Peterson give their own rendition of "Let Me Go Blubber."

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

Trudy Tufts and "Jerry" watch the junior trio, Kristin Munk, Ann Baker, and Odetta Jones, sing "Someday" accompanied by Janet Larsen.

SOPHOMORE ASSEMBLY

In the setting of the Ozark Mountains, the "Oakies" show their version of the twist.

FRESHMAN ASSEMBLY

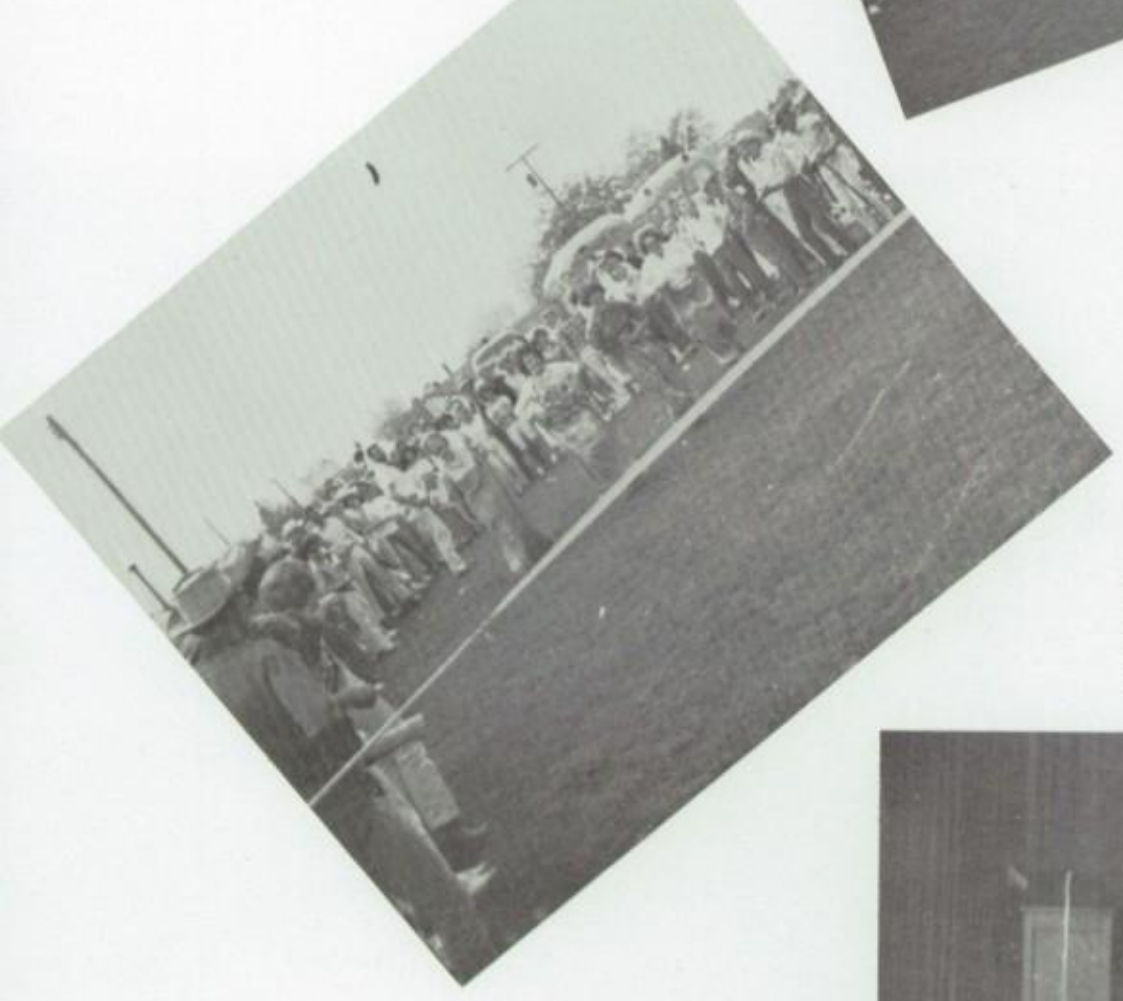
At a party in the house of a baby sitter, Cecil Taylor, Nancy Pendrey, Karol Teuscher, and Marsha Ipsen charleston to clamorous music and a bawling baby.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

To commemorate Idaho's 100 years as a territory, MHS sponsored a day of western activities, being the first of its kind in the history of Montpelier High School. The results of this centennial day were the prizes awarded to the freshmen and juniors, who tied for first place, receiving trophies, which will be displayed in the trophy case.

ABOVE: Cecil Taylor and Gerald Freeman take the lead over the upper classmen in the three-legged race. Kerry Haddock and Ann Rowland, juniors, and Polly Crane and Charles Gregory, sophomores, run a close second with seniors, Guy Arnell and Julie Martineau, bringing up the rear.

The barrel race featured Roger Toomer, Phil Parker, Gordon Bradley, and Ronald Bird (not shown) with Phil Parker taking the honors for the sophomore class.



ABOVE: An outdoor event was the sack race, won by freshman Bonnie Woolstenhulme. Second place, Julie Martineau, finished one leap behind Bonnie. Ends, Janet Bartschi and Sharon Rowsell placed second and third.

BELOW: The baby bottle drinking contest, judged by Coach Pitchford, was won by Renee Hayes, freshman, with junior, Paul Perkins, coming in a close second. Ends, John Matthews and Jerry Walker tied for third.

Christmas carols, played on the bells by Mary Lynn Collipriest and Renee Kunz, opened the annual Christmas Cantata, which was held December 21.

CANTATA

The Messiah, Gloria, and popular Christmas songs were featured in the Christmas Cantata. The freshman Girls' Glee were responsible for the decorations.

Written by Maureen Daly, "Seventeenth Summer" made an outstanding selection for the MHS All School Play of 1963. Casting of the play was excellent and the audience greatly enjoyed the antics of Kitty, shed tears with Angie and her problems, and sympathized with Mom and Dad over their problems with their growing family. So typical were the situations that it could have easily been in any home in Montpelier. The cast is to be complimented for its fine portrayal.

Student Director

An early morning scene Margaret (Reola), Angie (La Rae), and Lorraine (Loy) come to breakfast at the beginning of an eventful day.

Angie (LaRae McMurray) and Jack (Robert Perkins) prepare to leave for the Fourth of July celebration with their friends.

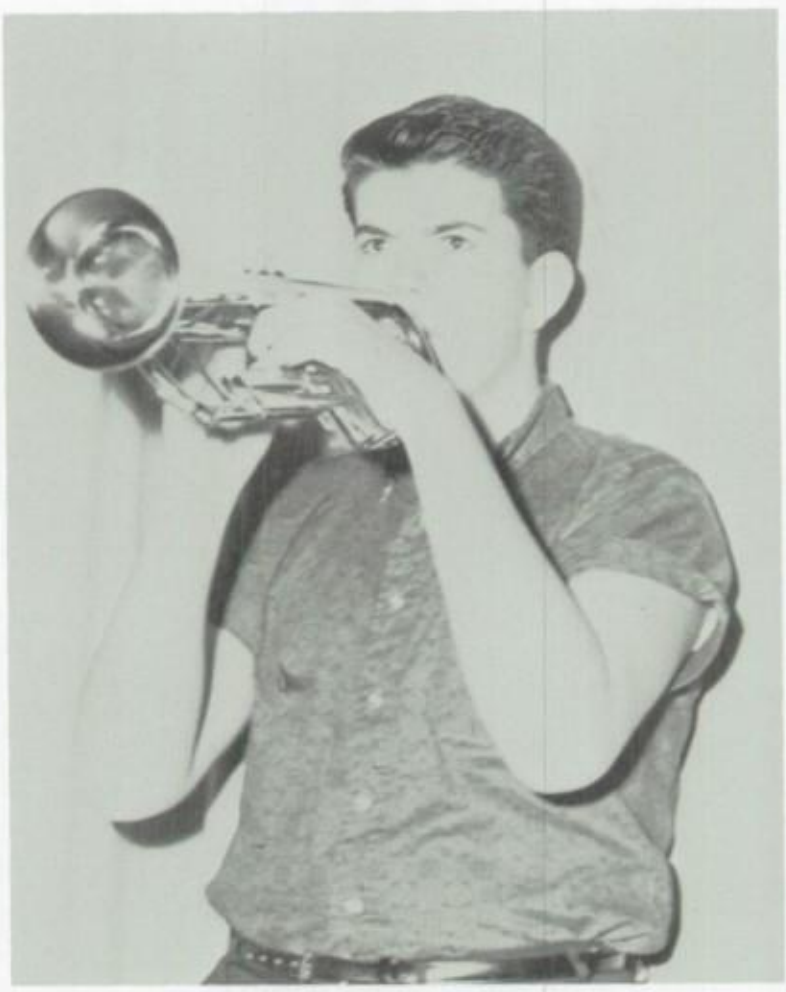
Mom, (Julie Martineau) and Dad (Ferris Kunz) lecture mischievous Kitty for playing Dad's horn.

After an expression of their true feelings for each other, Jack (Bob) encloses Angie in a passionate embrace.

Angie's catty friends, Margie and Jane, are sarcastically ribbing Angie's being with Jack, Jane's ex-boyfriend.

After moments of reprimanding, Angie reluctantly starts for work in the garden.

Guy Arnell, Robert Perkins, Peter Guyon, and Stephen Kunz, the senior quartet, practice for regional festival. This group also performed during assemblies and graduation.



Robert Perkins, senior trumpeter, displayed his ability at various activities throughout the year which resulted in superior ratings at district and regional festivals.

The only quintet entered in drum ensemble competition at district festival was the MHS ensemble consisting of Reola Phelps, Renee Kunz, Lee Ann Perkins, Kristin Munk, and Mary Lyn Collipriest, which received an excellent rating.

PIANO RECITAL

Ruth Reeves is practicing her solo, "Premier Ballade" by Chopin for festival.

"Garden in the Rain" by DeBussy is the solo being played by Ann Baker for festival.

After ten weeks of practicing, Mr. Baker's prepared sophomore, junior, and senior piano students, present a recital giving their memorized solos. Two of the participating students are chosen to represent MHS at music festival.

ASSEMBLIES

President Guy Arnell in the opening assembly welcomes the incoming freshmen, sophomores, and upper classmen.

Julie Martineau, ranking high in qualifying tests, was the first merit finalist since 1959. Principal Phillips awards her the Merit certificate in the Scholastic Awards Assembly.

SPEECH ASSEMBLY

In the speech assembly, the speech class gives choral readings, "The Name of Old Glory" and "God's Judgement on a Wicked Bishop" for which they received superior ratings at Marsh Valley and Pocatello.

PEP CLUB ASSEMBLY

Susan Perkins displays for the student body her modern dance which placed her as a finalist in the Miss Bear Lake Pageant.

PEP CLUB ASSEMBLY

In the "line-up" of Pep Club Preferred Knight candidates, Tom Nield begins the acceptance speeches.

GIRLS AND BOYS STATE

Chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary, the Girls State representatives from MHS met at the College of Idaho in Nampa, and chosen by the faculty the Boys State representative from MHS met at Boise Junior College in Boise. These representatives learned parliamentary procedure during their own actions of introducing bills which increases and stimulates national pride. Each week was climaxed at the Capitol Building with a speech by Governor Smylie.

YOUTH LEGISLATURE

Representatives met at a pre-legislative meeting in Pocatello to elect officers from each region for the two-day legislature. At legislature, after speeches by the State governor and the youth governor in joint session of the mock-legislative houses, the Idaho Supreme Court was introduced. Following committee meetings was a day of session with the introduction and passing of bills drawn up by the representatives.

PEPETTE BANQUET

Assistant Drill Master Sheryl Neeley presents Master Renee Kunz with a rose and gift for her year's leadership.

At a banquet of roast beef at the Burgoyne Hotel, the outgoing seniors were awarded a rose and will receive a certificate signifying the number of years of service at the closing assembly.

PEP CLUB PARTY

During the Pep Club Initiation Party, Mable Crane and Shanna Hartley participate in the raw egg rolling race.

As part of the initiation the blind-folded pledgees fed each other cold, wet spaghetti. Pictured, these same pledgees feed each other three spoons of baby food such as liver and spinach.

A new addition to the closing assembly was the awarding of the wrestling letters and certificates by Mr. Perkins, the wrestling coach.

FINAL ASSEMBLY

With right hand raised, Keith Teuscher takes the oath of office and acquires many new responsibilities as student body president for '63-'64.

Mr. Powell, student council adviser, awards President Guy Arnell and Vice-President Stephen Kunz with gavels, and to Secretary Janet Larsen a pen and pencil set. The coveted M pin was also a distinction awarded to these student leaders.

Mr. Hyde, Honor Society adviser, hands out certificates to the Honor Society members who have maintained a 3.3 or better grade average throughout their high school career.

Highlighting the Lettermen's Banquet, sponsored by the Lion's Club, was the announcement of the Whitman Trophy winners, Guy Arnell, backfield, and Max Hemmert, line. Guy Arnell also received awards for the outstanding football and basketball player. Those involved during the award presentation are—LEFT TO RIGHT: Principal Phillips, Coach Evan Sorenson from USU, Coach Johnson, Max Hemmert, Guy Arnell, Coach Pitchford, and Gene Passey, Lions Club President.

Commencing the senior all-night party following the Commencement Ball, the senior buffet, under the supervision of Mrs. Walling, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Wright, and Mrs. McMurray was enjoyed by the seniors and their partners.

The informality of their buffet dinner is shown by the couples while viewing baby pictures on the opaque projector of each individual senior.

Mary Lynn Jensen and Ruth Reeves continue their graduation night's escapades by attending the show "A Hole in the Head."

The "not-so-perky" seniors, Patricia Budge, Shirley Beutler, Marian Munk, Carolyn Lewis, and Loy Smith, livened up a bit with bowling from 4 to 6 a.m.

Guy Arnell, showing good form, was probably rewarded with a strike.

Taking a breather, Gordon Bradley, Stephen Kunz, Betty Widmer, Wade Peterson, Max Hemmert, and Sue Smith enjoy the Graduation Ball.

Misty-eyed seniors, anxious juniors, hopeful sophomores, and indifferent freshmen participate in the Graduation Ball.

RUTH REEVES
Co-valedictorian

Ruth and Mary Lynn, maintaining a straight four point average throughout high school, are giving addresses on "One State Under God" and "One Nation Under God", respectively.

MARY LYNN JENSEN
Co-valedictorian

LEE ANN PERKINS
Salutatorian

Lee Ann, running close with a 3.985 average, gave the salutatory welcome address.

GUY ARNELL and JULIE MARTINEAU
Outstanding Boy and Girl

Julie and Guy received the American Legion Awards for the outstanding girl and boy graduates which are chosen by the faculty.

FERRIS KUNZ
Bausch and Lomb Science Award

Ferris received the Bausch and Lomb Science Award for excellence in science and math chosen by the science and math teachers.

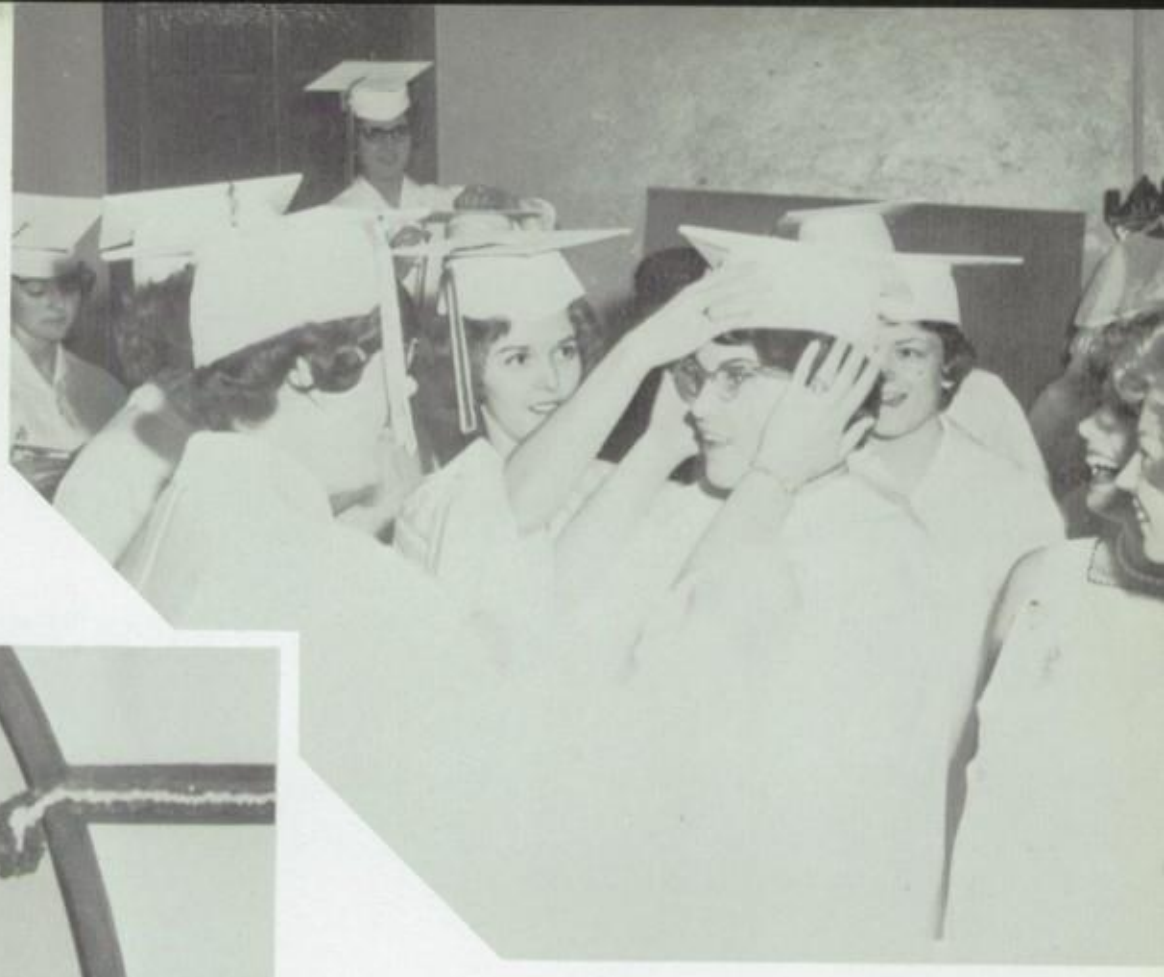
GRADUATION

Mr. Hyde and Mr. Baker supervise graduation practice for the elated seniors. The Girls' Glee put the finishing touches to the patriotic decorations.

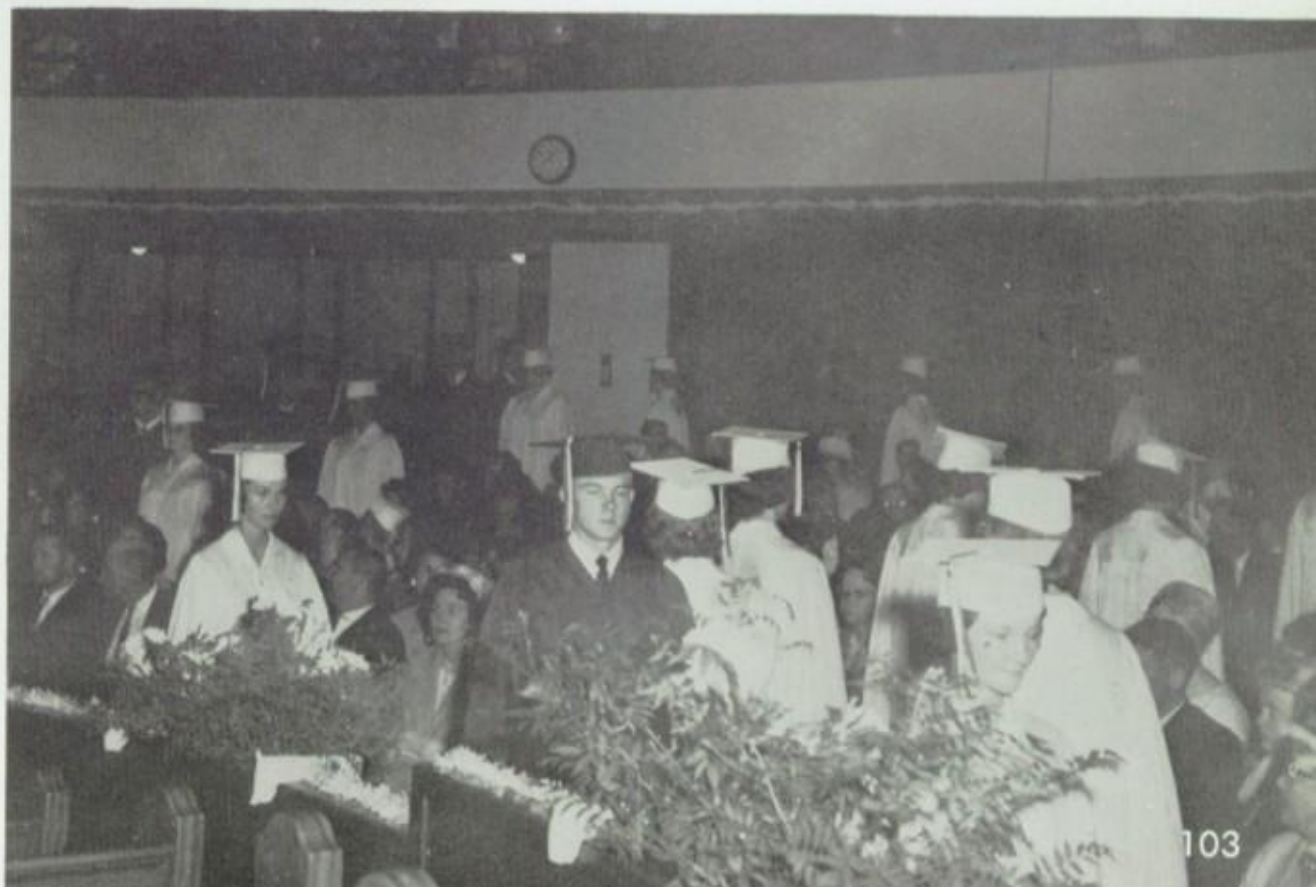
BELOW: A bit sad, happy, anxious, and fearful, Dennis Walker, Ferris Boehme, Paul Weaver, De Verl Bauman, John Powell, Allen Michie, and Ferris Kunz don their caps and gowns before the graduation exercises.

To climax twelve years of study, the graduating class of 1963 will leave MHS with many cherished memories. This class has been outstanding in scholarship, athletics and music. Mary Lynn Jensen, co-valedictorian, is an illustration of scholarship, maintaining a 4.0 average. The remaining thirteen students, seated in the front row, are members of the National Honor Society.

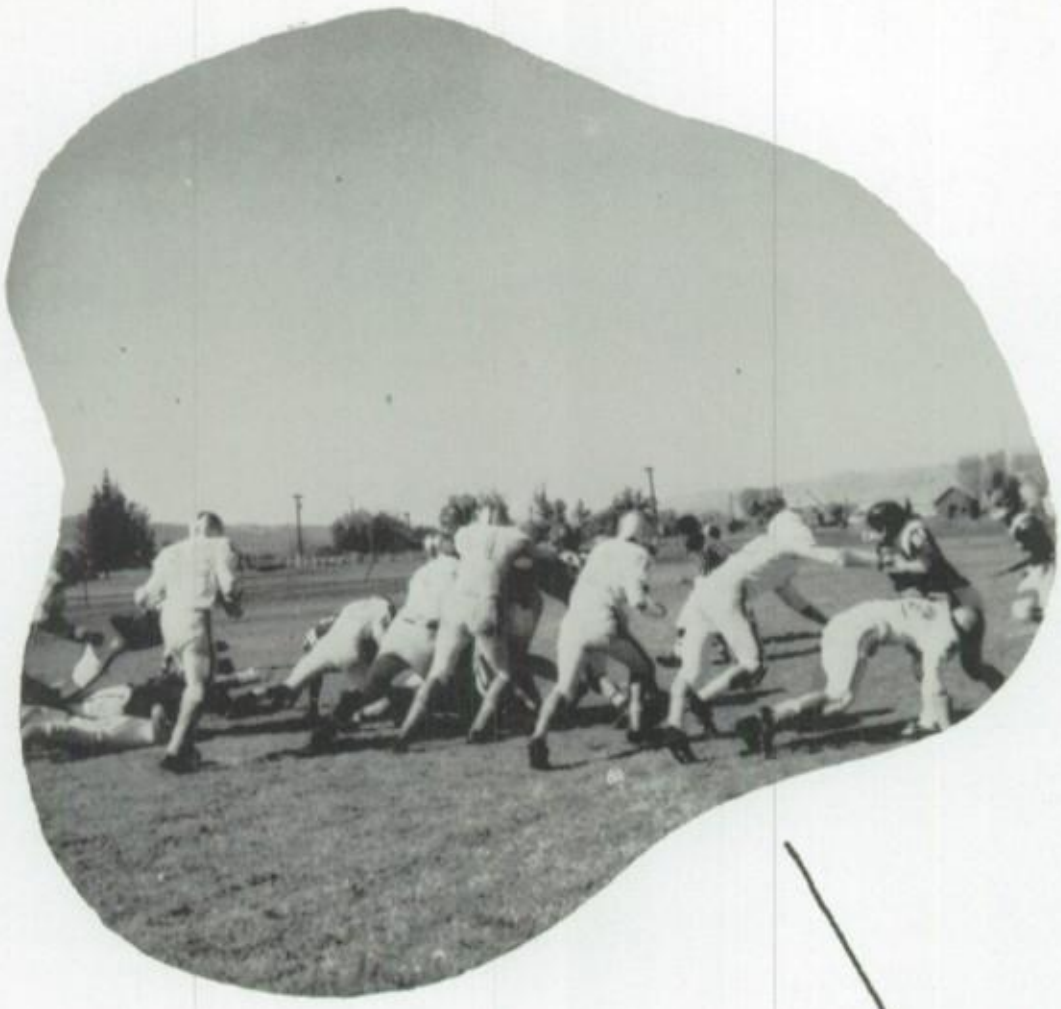
"ONE NATION UNDER GOD"



"Oh, and I just 'ratted' my hair!" exclaims Reola Phelps as Julie Martineau, Stephanie Wright, Verla Hansen, Susan Perkins, and Evva Dean Weaver give their approval.



Somber seniors march down the aisle to "Land of Hope and Glory". They have a big night, full of class activities ahead of them.



SPORTS

Dear Diary,
The score isn't always the story. In terms of wins and losses the Bears' record was not the best. The teams looked well-coached, but inexperienced. All in all, they had a good season — a building season. M.H.S. will miss many excellent players.

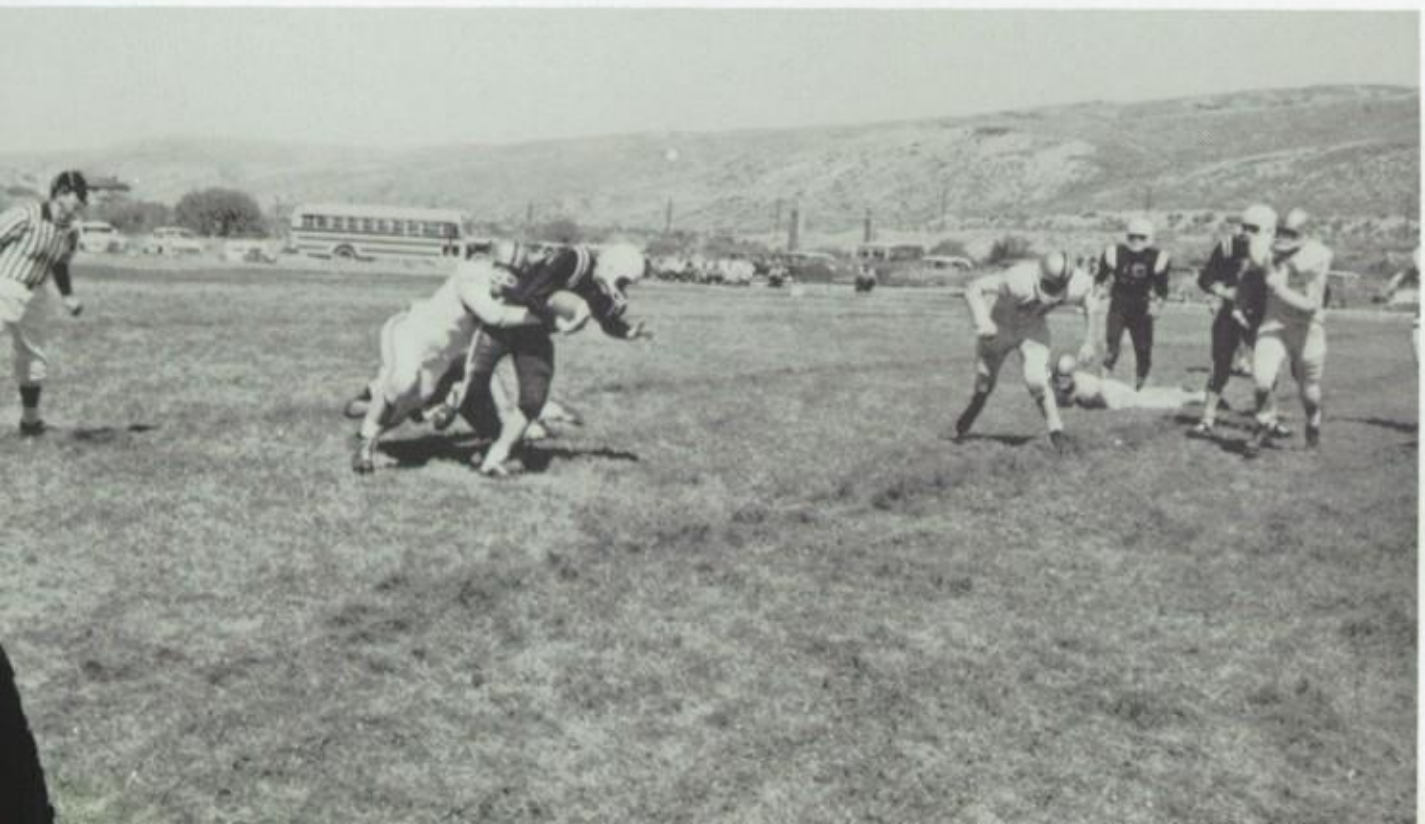
Tom Nield, 12, pitches out to Terry Bateman, 42, in the game with Kemmerer.

The first pass interception of the game finds the ball in the grip of a Pelier man.

No getting around that Pelier defense! A gang of tacklers led by Max Hemmert make the tackle against the Kemmerer team.



Hard driving Doug Nate smashes into the opposition with a terrific blow.

Guy Arnell, 32, dents Kemmerer's line as well as one of their tacklers, during the first Bear game of the season. The Bears won a decisive victory shutting out the Rangers 12-0.

A Pelier man makes little yardage against the tough defensive line of the Marsh Valley Eagles led by No. 63 in the dark uniform. The Eagles squeezed the Bears out 7-0.

Crunch! Kerry Haddock, 11, is downed while handing the ball to a teammate during the Malad game. The line worked hard in opening a hole for the runner. The game ended in a 7-7 tie.

Guy Arnell, 31, is stopped only momentarily as the Bears defeated Kemmerer Rangers on their own gridiron.

Guy Arnell drives hard for lay in as Tom Nield prepares to rebound.

Terry Bateman attempts a free throw with two minutes and fifty-seven seconds in the third quarter against the Marsh Valley Eagles.

In anticipation of two more points, the Bears look on.

Keith Teuscher takes advantage of a Green River mistake by collecting the free throw at the foul line.

Guy Arnell springs high into the air to rack up two more points for the Bears against the Green River Wolves.

Peter Guyon goes high into the air for a successful tip for Pelier.

Thrilling the hometown fans, Guy Arnell springs high into the air to rack up two more points for the Bears against the Green River Wolves.

With a minute and thirty-four seconds to go in the third quarter, Guy Arnell chucks up another field goal for the Bears in a hard fought battle with Soda Springs on the Cardinal floor.

Catching the Marsh Valley defense off guard, Wade Peterson fires one from the corner to score for Pelier. Marsh Valley went on to beat the Bears at Arimo.

With the score favoring Pelier 21-12 in the second quarter, Wade Peterson breaks loose for two more Bear points. The hometown crowd was well pleased with the decisive victory of the Bears.

WRESTLING

COACH PERKINS

Wrestling was begun at MHS for the first time in many years. Under the direction of Coach Perkins, the Bears won one out of eight meets, but these were all close. Twelve men on the varsity squad lettered this year. Wrestling is not a sport for "panty-waists." It takes a lot of intestinal fortitude to be a wrestler. When a boy goes out on the mat, he is all alone, with no one to help him if he gets thrown down, or in a tight hold. MHS is looking forward to further wrestling seasons.

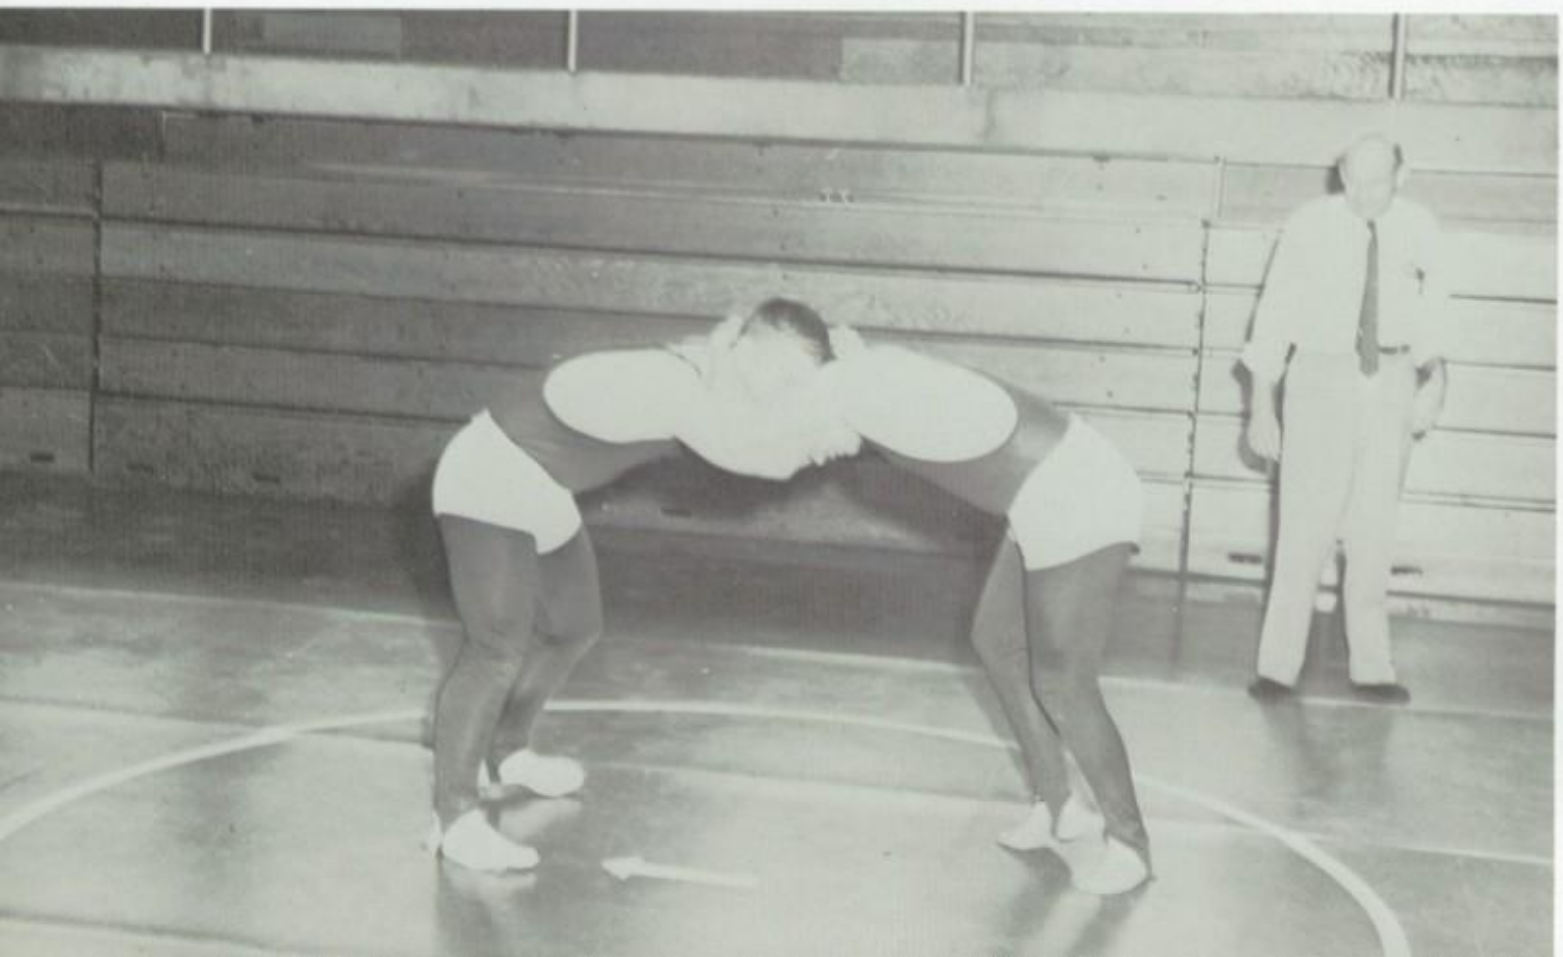
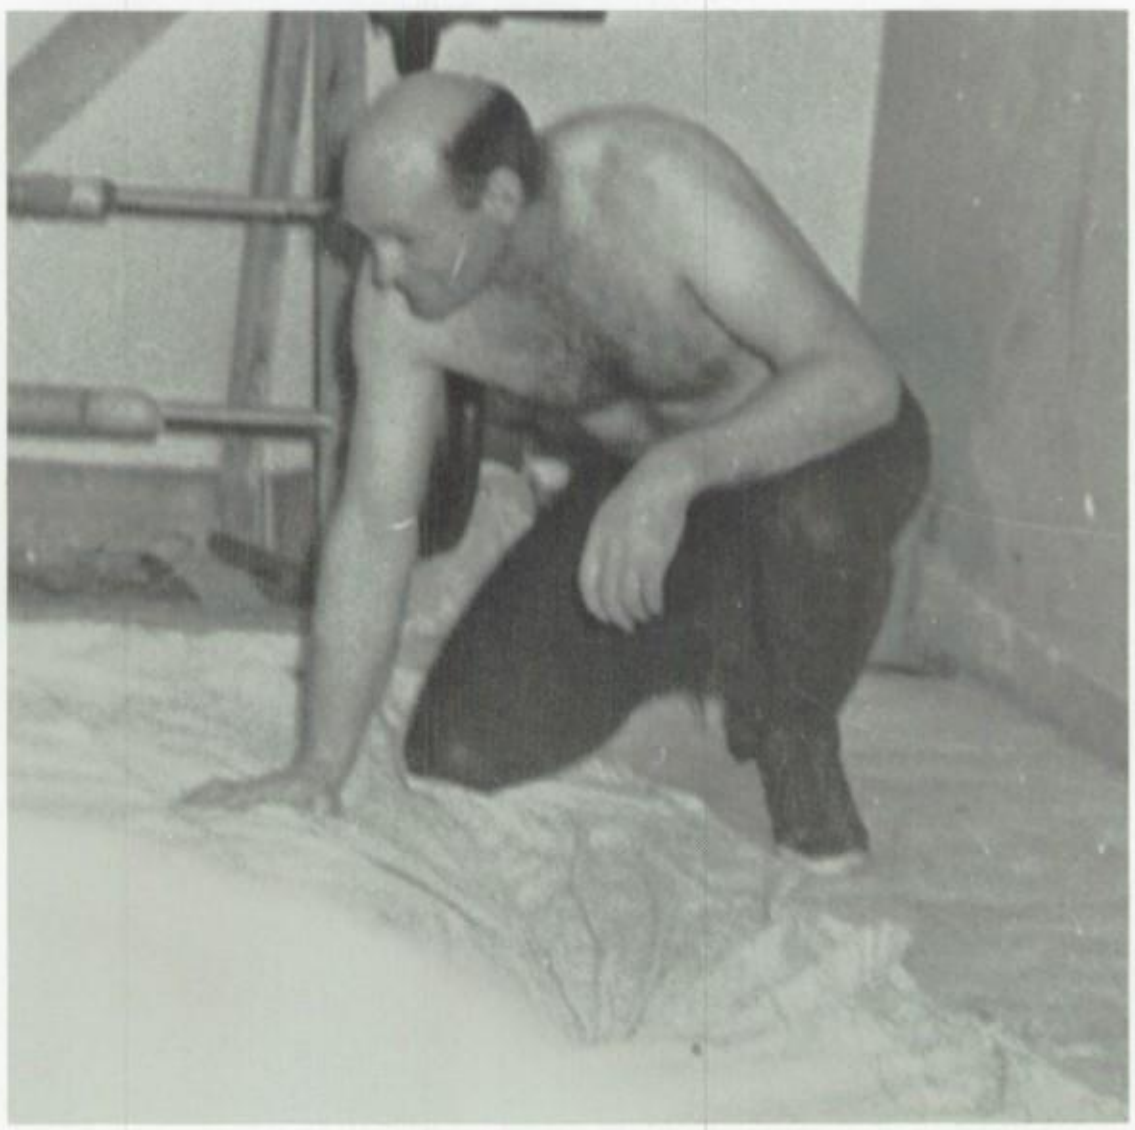
Mr. Hyde keeps a close watch on the shoulders of Merlin Lindsay as David Lindsay tries to pin Merlin with a half-Nelson.



Mr. Perkins watches Warren Sleight and Stephen Kunz to give them some pointers on better holds.

Jim Harrison demonstrates the figure-four wrestling hold on Brent Derricott. The name of this hold is derived from the formation of the No. 4 by the executer's legs. This is a very painful position for the held person.



Mr. Perkins, the wrestling coach of MHS, has been working hard to make wrestling a success this year. This is the first year that MHS has had a wrestling team for fifteen years.

BELOW: After basketball season was over, 6th period athletics was converted into a physical fitness class. This class spent their hour doing calisthenics and running laps. Coach Johnson and Pitchford, shown below, are discussing new activities for these boys.

ABOVE: Randy Bentsen serves an "ace" to raise the score for him and Morgan Barkdull.

Morgan Barkdull rushes a return on the second serve. Randy Bentsen, his teammate, stands ready to guard his section of the court.

Jerry Walker returns a serve while his teammate, Jerry Weaver, plays the net. Opponent, Morgan Barkdull anticipates a good return.

Forming the backbone of this yearbook and making it possible, are the merchants of our city and those surrounding. The expense of putting out such a yearbook is largely placed on their shoulders. The Idamont staff and the students of Montpelier High School wish to express their appreciation to the merchants.

Christin, Linda, and I felt they were very cooperative and especially friendly. So, in return for their support, we urge you to cater to the local businessmen, thus promoting the prosperity of our community.

We are also grateful to the merchants in their support of the school paper. They have backed Montpelier High School in sports, music, and drama. To them, we express our sincere thanks.

Dear Kaye

I don't know just what to say? but I'll come up with something. A few reminders to help you remember the fun we had. Like the double date with Kerry and Alva Lee. HA HA wasn't a gas. Of course I do have had ~~some~~ with you every time I am with you? Even though I don't act like it some times. and then there's the night Billy and that kid from (Georgetown) went with us. Lets see will soon be to Christmas won't we. A fight
I think. Of course there was all the school dances and slows. And how you could talk me into things like the time crissy (Heidi) and Carol Tucker went with us then the junior prom I'll never forget that. of course the juniors would have the best dance of the year, wouldn't they? I'm not acting conceited. the school ends and summer is here such memories some I'd like to forget.
(no sleep (H A, H A). But all in all you are the best girl in High school, you have a cool personality, good luck in all you do?

Love Reed

Dear Faye,
Heres to a
